

A Resolution to Combat Human Trafficking

- WHEREAS, Human trafficking has allowed for the dehumanization of men, women, and children across the globe; and
- WHEREAS, This modern form of slavery has become not only prevalent in underdeveloped states, but also in our own country; and
- WHEREAS, Thousands of people are trafficked into the United States each year; and
- WHEREAS, Free trade allows for easier transport, trafficking, and exploitation of individuals; now, therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Congress here assembled make the following recommendation for the United States government to propose diplomatic talks with representatives of all countries with which the United States engages in free trade, in order to amend their free trade agreements to include clauses to bilaterally combat human trafficking.

Introduced for Congressional Debate by Valerie Trapp, Trinity Preparatory School.