

Inside Out Congress topics

December 3rd 2016

1) Schools must require all students to take a class on emotional intelligence. (This legislation is relevant to grade level, meaning 3rd through 5th grade students should present arguments related to elementary school, 6th through 8th should present arguments relevant to middle school, and so on.)

2) Schools should eliminate zero tolerance policies related to bullying.

3) The box requesting that individuals identify their race must be removed from all school- and government-related documents.

Final) RESOLVED: By the Congress here assembled that states and local communities set up subsidized housing for the supportive care of mentally ill individuals.
